Dear Arthur Katz:

This is to inform you that the Cigarette Agent and Cigarette Wholesaler licenses of Consumer Products Distributors Inc., d/b/a J. Polep Distribution Services have been suspended for thirty (30) days. The suspension is imposed on J. Polep in ten (10) consecutive three (3) day periods to include a consecutive Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Such suspension shall commence on Saturday January 1, 1998 and end on Monday March 9, 1998. During the days of suspension the business cannot purchase nor sell cigarettes.

In addition to the suspension the maximum civil fine of $20,000 was imposed and paid. To insure compliance with the statute, would you please disseminate this information in the same manner as you currently do for suspended Retail Dealer Registrations.

I would also like to thank you and your membership for your organization's continued cooperation. The First Alert Program is a model of Government and Industry working together for a common goal.

Sincerely,

Charles M. Mills
